Bring a Friend

Ever want to introduce someone to Indian Guides but didn't know how to do so? As per previous years, you can bring a non-member dad and son(s) to an Indian Guides event so they can get a taste of what its all about. (One event per prospective new family, please.) The non-member dad and sons will have to pay the regular fee for the event and you can use the same registration form. It's a great way to get someone to see how great Indian Guides is first hand.

Submit Drumbeats on your Fall tribal activities

ALERT!

Send in your registration form for the YMCA Sleep-In by NOV 6th

Get your membership forms and dues in NOW!

????????????????????

Did you know... The YMCA Indian Guide program was developed in 1926 by Harold S. Keltner, a YMCA director in St. Louis, to support the father's vital family role as teacher, counselor, and friend to his son.

Hayride 2007

Heritage Farms in Peninsula again served as a wonderful host for this year's Hayride and Induction Ceremony. The Wyandot tribe and the folks at Heritage did a nice job of coordinating plenty of fun for the boys. Annual favorites included the corn stalk maze, hayrides through the fields, and giant rolls of hay for the kids to jump and climb on. We dined on hamburgers, dogs and mac and cheese. As nightfall set in new Longhouse Chief Jerry Budrevich presided over a great induction ceremony where the new officers as well as new members were inducted into Indian Guides around a great bonfire! As usual, a great kick-off to the 2007-08 event year.

Shawnee!

The 2nd annual Dads vs Sons kickball game was hosted by the Horsch's on Saturday 10-20-07. Everyone enjoyed themselves. Once again the boys staged a comeback and won the game in the last inning. Thanks to the Horsch's for the snacks and drinks.

In Recognition...

Hudson Schools salutes five 2007-2008 CCMH Community Heroes

Submitted by Randy Bisbee

"Hudson is blessed with many community members who reach out to kids who struggle with emotional and behavioral disorders and speak out on their behalf," says Barbara Hempl on behalf of the Coalition for Children's Mental Health. Community Hero Nominations are submitted by community members. The 2007-2008 winners include four Hudson Schools' faculty members and a Hudson Schools' classroom volunteer.

The Award Winners are as follows: Jeff Hildebrand, 6th Grade Social Studies teacher. Jeff was nominated for his compassion for educating the whole child, and establishing the Hudson Leadership Academy. Jeff does a lot of work at the Middle School with kids that are "at risk" or who are having trouble in their lives. He goes above and beyond what is asked of him as a teacher.

Kids' Challenge '07

Listen up Little Braves!

Are you ready for the 'Kids' Challenge' contest? What is that, you ask? Well, it's an opportunity to promote the Guides program to your non-Guides friends to encourage new membership in the Rolling Plains Longhouse. Tell them what a great time you have with the Guides and get them to tell their Dads. Best of all, invite them to upcoming events and show them how much fun you have. What's in it for you? Well, if bringing more of your friends into the Guides to share camp-outs, Derby racing, Laser Tag and more isn't enough, there's also a pizza party up for grabs for the winning tribe! So how do you "play"? Read on...

The tribe registering the greatest number of new member referrals from now until December 9th, 2007 will be the recipient of the Kids Challenge '07 Contest Pizza Party!!

Official rules:

1. Kids need to be involved in spreading the word and encouraging new membership among their friends.
2. New members must indicate a referral on the membership form, or the Big/Little Brave must attest (under oath, of course) to knowing the new recruits and playing a VITAL role in the new members' interest in joining
3. Sorry, new unsolicited memberships that get assigned to your tribe don't count!
4. Recruitment of new members will only count with a PAID membership—no promises, sorry!
5. Chiefs are responsible for keeping track of their new recruits and communicating their tallies at monthly Longhouse meetings, to be checked against the official registry maintained by Wampum Bearer.
6. Recruitment totals will be counted through the first week of December.
7. Official results and winning tribe to be announced at the annual banquet

Take Immediate Action!

Recruit new members to the Indian Guides. If you know of anyone who is interested in Guides, put them in touch with your Nation Chiefs so they can get signed up or bring them to an event.

Plan a charitable or community service event with your tribe for the holiday season. Show the community that we're teaching our kids to help those less fortunate than us.

Hurry- Get signed up for the Y Sleep-In by November 6th.

Have you turned in your membership form and dues? If not, we'll find you!!

Pictures, pictures, we need pictures! If you have digital photos of your tribal activities, send them to the Tallykeeper for inclusion in future Longtalks. Also, copy our Webspinner as well, to help keep our website stocked with current photos.

Send in your Drumbeats to the Tallykeeper.

Hey, it's not too late to nominate someone for the Joe Friday

Joe Friday Award

Award. This award is presented each year at the Awards Banquet to individuals in our Longhouse who stand above the others in their commitment to the YMCA Indian Guides program. The award recognizes devotion, volunteerism, and love for children displayed by the recipient(s) year after year. Any Indian Guides member can nominate a candidate for the award. Please email nominations to Dean at drw@deanwagner.com. Your nomination MUST be in by the November Longhouse meeting (Nov 6th) when the vote will take place. Please provide a brief summary describing the nominee's commitment to the Guides program.
